

Call for Entries 2009

It starts with one can. To feed the hungry. Help children get the nutrition they need and to help the less fortunate.

The 9th Annual Canstruction® St. Louis presents the talent and generosity of our most talented communities in the fight against hunger.

This international design/build competition, which benefits the Harvey Kornblum Jewish Food Pantry and the St. Louis Area Food Bank, brings together teams of architects, engineers, construction firms, graphic artists and students to build amazing sculptures using only canned food and other non-perishables.

So, get creative, start brain storming and help feed the hungry...one can at a time!
